

STATE OF NEW YORK

5829

2007-2008 Regular Sessions

IN SENATE

May 14, 2007

Introduced by COMMITTEE ON RULES -- (at request of the Governor) -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Health

AN ACT to amend the public health law, in relation to enacting the Reproductive Health and Privacy Protection Act and in relation to the revision of existing provisions regarding abortions; to amend the education law, in relation to unauthorized abortions; to amend the penal law, the criminal procedure law, the county law and the judiciary law, in relation to abortion; to repeal certain provisions of the education law relating to the sale of contraceptives; and to repeal certain provisions of the penal law relating to abortion

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. This act shall be known and may be cited as the "Reproductive Health and Privacy Protection Act".

§ 2. The public health law is amended by adding a new article 12 to read as follows:

ARTICLE 12

REPRODUCTIVE HEALTH AND PRIVACY PROTECTION

Section 1200. Statement of policy.

1201. Authorized performance of abortions.

1202. State regulation.

1203. Definitions.

§ 1200. Statement of policy. The legislature declares that every individual has a fundamental right of privacy with respect to certain personal reproductive decisions. Accordingly, it is the public policy of the state of New York that:

1. Every individual has the fundamental right to choose or refuse contraception;

2. Every female has the fundamental right to determine the course of her pregnancy, which includes the right to bear a child or to terminate a pregnancy (i) prior to fetal viability, or (ii) at any time if such termination is necessary to protect the pregnant female's life or health.

§ 1201. Authorized performance of abortions. The performance of an abortion by a qualified, licensed health care practitioner is authorized:

1. prior to fetal viability; and

2. at any time, if in the good faith medical judgment of the physician, such termination is necessary to protect the female's life or health.

§ 1202. State regulation. 1. The state shall not deny, regulate or restrict the rights set forth in section twelve hundred of this article by any law, ordinance, regulation or policy except by law, regulation or policy that is narrowly tailored to serve a compelling state interest and except as set forth in subdivision three of this section.

2. The state shall not discriminate against the exercise of the rights set forth in section twelve hundred of this article in the regulation or provision of benefits, facilities, services or information.

3. Nothing in this article shall prohibit the enforcement of generally applicable statutes and regulations governing matters such as practitioner licensing, pharmaceuticals and medical devices, and medical procedures.

§ 1203. Definitions. The following definitions shall apply for purposes of this article:

1. "Abortion" means the termination of a pregnancy for purposes other than producing a live birth, which includes but is not limited to a termination using pharmacological agents. Abortion does not include the termination of an ectopic pregnancy.

2. "Contraception" means any drug or device approved by the United States food and drug administration for the purpose of preventing pregnancy.

3. "Pregnancy" means the human reproductive process, beginning with the implantation of a fertilized egg.

4. "State" means the state of New York and every county, city, town, municipal corporation, quasi-municipal corporation of the state, including governmental and political subdivisions, agencies and instrumentalities.

5. "Fetal viability" means the point in pregnancy when, in the good faith medical judgment of a physician, in accordance with generally accepted medical standards applied to the particular facts of the case before that physician, there is a reasonable likelihood of the fetus's sustained survival outside the uterus without the application of extraordinary medical measures.

§ 3. Subdivision 1 of section 4164 of the public health law, as added by chapter 991 of the laws of 1974, is amended to read as follows:

1. ~~[When an abortion is to be performed after the twelfth week of pregnancy it shall be performed only in a hospital and only on an in-patient basis.]~~ When an abortion is to be performed after ~~[the twentieth week of pregnancy,]~~ fetal viability, as that term is defined by subdivision five of section twelve hundred three of this chapter, it shall be performed by a physician in a facility which is licensed by the department pursuant to article twenty-eight of this chapter and a physician other than the physician performing the abortion shall be in attendance to take control of and to provide immediate medical care for any live birth that is the result of the abortion, provided, however, that an abortion shall not be delayed for the purpose of securing such second physician's attendance if, in the judgment of the physician performing the abortion, such delay would pose a risk to the woman's life or health. The commissioner of health is authorized to promulgate rules and regulations to insure the health and safety of the mother and the ~~[viable child]~~ live birth, in such instances.

§ 4. Section 6530 of the education law is amended by adding a new subdivision 16-a to read as follows:

16-a. Performing any abortion that is not authorized as set forth in section twelve hundred one of the public health law;

§ 5. Subdivision 8 of section 6811 of the education law is REPEALED.

§ 6. Sections 125.40, 125.45, 125.50, 125.55 and 125.60 of the penal law are REPEALED, and the article heading of article 125 of the penal law is amended to read as follows:

HOMICIDE[~~7-ABORTION~~] AND RELATED OFFENSES

§ 7. Section 125.00 of the penal law is amended to read as follows:
§ 125.00 Homicide defined.

Homicide means conduct which causes the death of a person [~~or an unborn child with which a female has been pregnant for more than twenty-four weeks~~] under circumstances constituting murder, manslaughter in the first degree, manslaughter in the second degree, or criminally negligent homicide[~~, abortion in the first degree or self-abortion in the first degree~~].

§ 8. Section 125.05 of the penal law, subdivision 3 as amended by chapter 127 of the laws of 1970, is amended to read as follows:

§ 125.05 Homicide[~~, abortion~~] and related offenses; [~~definitions of~~]
[~~terms~~] person defined.

[~~The following definitions are applicable to this article:~~]

[~~1. "Person,"~~] For the purposes of this article, the term "person," when referring to the victim of a homicide, means a human being who has been born and is alive.

[~~2. "Abortional act" means an act committed upon or with respect to a female, whether by another person or by the female herself, whether she is pregnant or not, whether directly upon her body or by the administering, taking or prescription of drugs or in any other manner, with intent to cause a miscarriage of such female.~~]

[~~3. "Justifiable abortional act." An abortional act is justifiable when committed upon a female with her consent by a duly licensed physician acting (a) under a reasonable belief that such is necessary to preserve her life, or, (b) within twenty four weeks from the commencement of her pregnancy. A pregnant female's commission of an abortional act upon herself is justifiable when she acts upon the advice of a duly licensed physician (1) that such act is necessary to preserve her life, or, (2) within twenty-four weeks from the commencement of her pregnancy. The submission by a female to an abortional act is justifiable when she believes that it is being committed by a duly licensed physician, acting under a reasonable belief that such act is necessary to preserve her life, or, within twenty-four weeks from the commencement of her pregnancy.~~]

§ 9. Section 125.15 of the penal law is amended to read as follows:

§ 125.15 Manslaughter in the second degree.

A person is guilty of manslaughter in the second degree when:

1. He recklessly causes the death of another person; or
2. [~~He commits upon a female an abortional act which causes her death, unless such abortional act is justifiable pursuant to subdivision three of section 125.05; or~~]

[~~3.~~] He intentionally causes or aids another person to commit suicide.

Manslaughter in the second degree is a class C felony.

§ 10. Section 125.20 of the penal law, subdivision 3 as amended and subdivision 4 as added by chapter 477 of the laws of 1990, is amended to read as follows:

§ 125.20 Manslaughter in the first degree.

A person is guilty of manslaughter in the first degree when:

1. With intent to cause serious physical injury to another person, he causes the death of such person or of a third person; or

2. With intent to cause the death of another person, he causes the death of such person or of a third person under circumstances which do not constitute murder because he acts under the influence of extreme emotional disturbance, as defined in paragraph (a) of subdivision one of section 125.25. The fact that homicide was committed under the influence of extreme emotional disturbance constitutes a mitigating circumstance reducing murder to manslaughter in the first degree and need not be proved in any prosecution initiated under this subdivision; or

3. ~~[He commits upon a female pregnant for more than twenty-four weeks an abortifacient act which causes her death, unless such abortifacient act is justifiable pursuant to subdivision three of section 125.05; or]~~

[4.] Being eighteen years old or more and with intent to cause physical injury to a person less than eleven years old, the defendant recklessly engages in conduct which creates a grave risk of serious physical injury to such person and thereby causes the death of such person.

Manslaughter in the first degree is a class B felony.

§ 11. Subdivision 10 of section 10.00 of the penal law, as amended by chapter 791 of the laws of 1967, is amended to read as follows:

10. "Serious physical injury" means physical injury which creates a substantial risk of death, or which causes death or serious and protracted disfigurement, protracted impairment of health or protracted loss or impairment of the function of any bodily organ, provided that when a woman is pregnant, a termination of the pregnancy without consent or authority shall constitute a serious physical injury to the woman.

§ 12. Paragraph (b) of subdivision 8 of section 700.05 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by chapter 442 of the laws of 2006, is amended to read as follows:

(b) Any of the following felonies: assault in the second degree as defined in section 120.05 of the penal law, assault in the first degree as defined in section 120.10 of the penal law, reckless endangerment in the first degree as defined in section 120.25 of the penal law, promoting a suicide attempt as defined in section 120.30 of the penal law, criminally negligent homicide as defined in section 125.10 of the penal law, manslaughter in the second degree as defined in section 125.15 of the penal law, manslaughter in the first degree as defined in section 125.20 of the penal law, murder in the second degree as defined in section 125.25 of the penal law, murder in the first degree as defined in section 125.27 of the penal law, ~~[abortion in the second degree as defined in section 125.40 of the penal law, abortion in the first degree as defined in section 125.45 of the penal law,]~~ rape in the third degree as defined in section 130.25 of the penal law, rape in the second degree as defined in section 130.30 of the penal law, rape in the first degree as defined in section 130.35 of the penal law, criminal sexual act in the third degree as defined in section 130.40 of the penal law, criminal sexual act in the second degree as defined in section 130.45 of the penal law, criminal sexual act in the first degree as defined in section 130.50 of the penal law, sexual abuse in the first degree as defined in section 130.65 of the penal law, unlawful imprisonment in the first degree as defined in section 135.10 of the penal law, kidnapping in the second degree as defined in section 135.20 of the penal law, kidnapping in the first degree as defined in section 135.25 of the penal law, custodial interference in the first degree as defined in section 135.50
